

It's an easy job for the barber to part the hair on a head like this. It's just as easy to prevent baldness if you only do the right thing. Baldness is almost always a sure sign of neglect; it is the story of neglected dandruff. Dandruff is untidy, unnecessary, and unhealthy.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

cures dandruff and prevents baldness. You save your hair and you are spared the annoyance of untidy clothing. It also stops falling of the hair, and makes the hair grow thick and long. Do not be deceived by cheap imitations which will only disappoint you. Make sure that you get the genuine Ayer's Hair Vigor.

SATURDAY'S RACING.

Hoolulu Park Was the Scene of Great Variety of Sport.

The second days racing at Hoolulu Park last week was notable in many respects. There was more sport to the square inch than there is ordinarily at a three ring circus. There was a lively game of ball, a spirited game of polo, and racing. On the track the events were of greater variety than ever before given on a Hilo course. There was the exhibition ladies' race, and the hot go between Wayboy and Acrobat, McKenzie and Guard driving.

There was also a great disappointment. Weller was withdrawn. He was booked for two races, a match with Del Vista and the one and one-quarter mile free for all. The veterinaries refused to give a certificate that the sorrel horse was unfit to race although it was apparent that he was a little lame. It is freely talked by the wisecracks, that the Weller people scented defeat and withdrew in order to escape it. However this may be, the people were disappointed in not having a chance to see Del Vista and General Cronje push the sorrel horse to his limit if not to defeat.

The first race Saturday afternoon was a one-half mile free for all, purse $125. Nullah, Mollie Connors and Frank S. lined up for the start and got away together. Nullah led well into the home stretch but could not hold out against Mollie Connors who came under the wire in the lead in 50 3/4.

In the harness event Wayboy won against Sambo in two straight heats, time 2:33 and 2:23. Sambo broke in each heat as he entered the second half, and in each case did some splendid work in repairing the fault, although he was unable to overtake his fleet rival.

In the five furlongs, free for all, Fierro, Rejected and Carter H. Harrison, Jr., got away in a bunch. The latter horse was ridden home victor with Rejected a close second.

The ladies' exhibition race attracted three competitors. The winner of the prize and the race was an elderly Hawaiian lady who knows how to get the most out of a race horse.

The race between Wayboy and Acrobat, McKenzie and Guard driving, excited the keenest interest. The two well known jockeys scored up and down the track before the grand stand until the judge's bell called them to time. They were off the first score with Acrobat at the pole. Wayboy fell behind and Acrobat who in action is a splendid exhibition of writhing muscles and tendons, seemed to have a walk away. Acrobat kept the lead through the first half and McKenzie came trailing along like a farmer on his way to market in a one horse shay. But once into the second half, a change came over McKenzie. He communicated to Wayboy and Wayboy responded. He gained on Acrobat and was giving him dust at the end of the third quarter. Wayboy led under the wire, time 2:34.

In the six furlongs race there were four contestants, Rejected, Del Vista, Carter H. Harrison and Fierro. The race was one of the prettiest of the meeting. Del Vista, the prize winner of the day won, Time, 1:18; Carter H. Harrison, Jr., second.

In the eighth race, a half mile dash, Molly Connors defeated Nullah, Frank S. and Philip, coming under the wire in 50 3/4.

The last race of the day was between General Cronje and Dixie Land, Weller having been withdrawn. Moir's black horse covered himself with glory and won the race.

Prize Winners.

The committee on awards gave the following prizes for the best floats in the Fourth of July parade: Best decorated mercantile float, J. D. Kennedy, $10; best decorated bicycle, P. C. Beamer, $5; best comic character, hayseed band, $5. The fine showing made by the marching children of the Honoumua Boarding School led the judges to make up a special purse of $20. This was given to the children of the school who composed one of the most attractive features of the procession.
